Prison Walls to Have Picture

Associated Press.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 16.—Having painted his way out of the federal penitentiary in Atlanta Max Sasanoff, Russian artist, has been commissioned to paint a picture of Christ upon the walls of Kilby prison near here.

Sasanoff was granted clemency by President Harding after the artist had translated his conception of the compassionate Christ on the gray walls of the federal prison in Atlanta. His fame for this picture spread, and the Big Brothers Bible class of Montgomery, one of the largest interdenominational classes in the south, obtained the artist for a similar task at the state prison. Prisoners at Kilby have donated cents each, one-third of their weekly allowance, to aid in meeting the expense of the painting. It is hoped that it will be ready for unveiling Christmas.

Dearth of Flats Defers Marriage

Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 16.—The average marrying age in London has risen from the pre-war figure of 22 for bridgegrooms and 20 for brides to be between 32 and 38 for bridegrooms and 25 to 27 for brides. A registrar explained this as being largely due to the dearth of suitable small houses or flats. He says couples will wait a suitable opportunity of obtaining some place to live before marrying.

"I have had cases of people taking out a license," the registrar told an interviewer, "and not marrying at the time arranged on account of the accommodation they hoped to get being taken by someone else able to pay a higher price. These couples, by paying two shillings every three months, have kept their license valid so that they can marry at once if they wish."

'CHRIST REVEALED'

Police Are Investigating Character Who Was Found In the Company With Six Women.

Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—The police today arrested a man who called himself "Jesus Christ revealed," and are investigating the possibility that he may be Benjamin Purnell, missing head of the "House of David."

With the man when arrested were three negro women and one negro man. In the man's pockets were found clippings from papers telling of Purnell's practices. Purnell is wanted by Michigan authorities for alleged immoral relations with a girl member of the House of David colony at Bar Harbor and a charge of having obtained money under false pretenses.

The man told the police that his real self was at least 1,000 years old but that he guessed his material age was about 50 or 55. Purnell is about 60. The man denied that he is Benjamin Purnell. All but one woman in the party told the police they had no earthly names.

The police booked the stranger as "Jesus Christ Revealed," home in Heaven.

'Twill be mighty close to Heaven

Japs Interested In Saghalien

Associated Press.
TOKIO, Oct. 16.—Japan's determination to secure from Russia long-term exclsive concessions for oil wells and coal mines in northern Saghalien, a determination that has proved the chief stumbling block to agreement in the Russo-Japanese negotiations at Peking, is due to recent discoveries of richer fields in Saghalien than any the Japanese exploiters had hitherto been able to find, according to several of the leading Japanese newspapers.

Japanese news dispatches assert that recently engineers employed by the Japanese company located in rich oil fields near the mouth of the Tym river, on the east Saghalien coast. Foreign oil experts however, are still sceptical about the value of Saghalien oil deposits.

MOUNTAINEERS EAGER FOR EDUCATION

Kentucky Settlement Has 1,000 Pupils On List.

RAPID GROWTH

22 Years Ago There Was But a Frame School of Five Rooms and Now There are 22 Buildings.

HINDMAN, Ky., Oct. 16.—Although buried in the Knott county mountains, sixteen miles from a railroad, 20 miles from Hazard, a Kentucky mountain settlement school has 1,000 students now on the waiting list.

Miss May Stone, in charge of the Hindman Settlement School so testified today.

Whereis, 22 years ago, when the school was founded, there was but frame school house of five rooms, a rented cottage and four acres of ground here, now there are 225 acres of land, including a coal mine, 22 buildings, 33 teachers and 111 boys and girls living in the settlement, she said.

School departments range from kindergarten to high schol, music, agriculture, and physical education besides a practice home where the mountain girls learn practical home making.

Christmas trees, sewing schools, Bible classes, campfire groups, practice home teas, fireside industries, all make the learning a cheerful thing.

Industries of life are carried on in a small scale. The boys and girls help earn their way weaving carpets, building furniture, making clothing, operating a farm.

Knott county, too ,shares the results. Where feuds were numerous and continous and moonshing brewed, and 70 percent of the mountain population was illiterate, not a murder has been committed for a ten year period, and illiteracy today is but ten percent, records of the county show.

Kentucky Ready for Virginia

LEXINGTON, Oct. 16. (AP)—Aiming to break last year's tie, 6-6 with the eleven of Washington and Lee University, the University of Kentucky's football team today completed what coaches said is the necessary "leg work" in preparation for Saturday's first Southern conference game here.

"Head work" will follow up to the minute the whistle blows on Stoll field, and coaches added, is expected to continue through the play.

The Cats, training hard all week for the Generals, hope to out-trick the Virginians, the mentors let it be known, but with secret practice on the field, their bagful was not exposed.

Kentucky's victory, 42 to 0, over Georgetown College last Saturday and the Generals' defeat, 10 to 8, by Wake Forrest, gave supporters here some hope, countered by the coaches' cooling cautions.

Japanese to Teach Military Training

Associated Press.
TOKIO, Oct., 16.—Military instruction in middle schools, higher schools and universities in Japan, along the lines of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in American colleges, will be instituted shortly, according to plans of the War Office.

Officers of the regular army on active service will be attached to each middle school and higher school in the country. Since the army is planning a re-organization that will decrease its units by four divisions, about 2,000 officers will be released from duty with troops for this service.

Military drill is already part of the curriculum of Japanese schools from grammar grades up, but theoretical instruction is not given, and in the higher grades the training is not compulsory. The new system would make the training compulsory for three hours a week.

Ranging outside the state, the volcanic activity of the Pacific coast country, the geology of Oklahoma, and the Appalachian region are covered.

Yellow Jackets Meet Lebanon

Coach Kilpatrick is working overtime to get his men into condition for the Middlesboro-Lebanon fracas tomorro wafternoon October 17th After the deafeat of last week, the men have been sent through a stiff workout and quite a few changes have been made in the team, and probably when Middlesboro takes the field tomorrow there will be a somewhat different lineup.

Yellow Jacket followers are rather conservative in their prognostications of the game, but readily admit that Coach John L. Kilpatrick has scheduled a real battle for the fans of southeast Kentucky. Middlesboro defeated Lebanon by a small margin last year and from all reports they are coming to take a victory back with them. Pineville has postponed their game with the Blue Devils in order that they may see Middlesboro in action. Their own game is to be played on Saturday and a delegation from here will journey to Pineville and return the compliment. The game is called at 3:15. All the stores will be closed between the hours of three and five, thus insuring a big turn out.

"DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE PARTIES"

A very good democratic friend of ours whom we admire for his many personal attributes of worth, however much we deplore and regret his political views and affiliations has sent us a sheet of political propaganda. This little scrap of ornamental printing purports to show the "difference between the parties"—democratic and republican.

Starting out with a premise of difference, as the above pamphlet goes on to state:

"The democratic party stands for the good of all and the "republican party stands for the interests of the few."

We have a striking example of how the democratic party stood for the "good of all" during the years of the World War, when labor was drafted into the army and the factory, and certain capitalistic cliques who happened to be close to the Wilson administration piled up profits at the expense of the people of the United States. Does anyone remember 1917-18; who looked after the interests of the few?

To go on: "The democratic party stands for low tariff—which means a lower price for everything you buy." Yes, quite true, but don't it also mean a low price for everything you sell? You can't have your cake and eat it. The democratic party is still pointing with pride to the high prices of the years of the World War. You cannot expect high prices for the labor of your hands unless that product sells at a reasonably good price.

Further, "The democratic party stands for the restoration for foreign markets—which means a stable market for the things you sell." The democratic party had an ample opportunity to restore foreign markets by the negotiation of a sane treaty at Versailles—instead it was party to one of the most unworkable treaties made in history. It remained for the republican party to restore foreign markets through the Dawes commission—the attention of our democratic friend is respectfully invited to the remarkable sale of German bonds in the past few days. Would they have sold for a cent on the dollar before the Dawes plan went into operation?

To go on "The democratic party helps all and favors none." Yes, for instance it helped young Ford and young Scripps during the war—a striking illustration how the last democratic administration helped its friends. Ask some of the over sea veterans about the unbiased attitude of the government at that time.

Further: "The democratic party is the party with new ideas and progressive legislation." Yes, observe the progressive attitude of the democratic party in the South where every state government is in the hands of that party. Take their attitude on child labor, for instance!

Again: "The democratic party stands for honest government." Again we respectfully invite the attention of our friend to the late war record of the Wilson administration. The building of cantonements for a specific instance.

And now we come down to the last, and this we can all get together—"the democratic party presents an able, vocal, aggressive candidate for president." Very vocal, so we grant. So was Mr. Bryan. The vocalization of Mr. Davis during the campaign has been largely confined to the hammering of other peoples' policies without a single constructive utterance in the way of government. Any misfit can wreck a house, but it takes a good carpenter to build one. Whenever Mr. Davis steps out into the light of 1924, with a constructive program of government and discards the motheaten theories of the past, then and not until then will his party receive the respectful attention of the voters of the country. And it is the above brand of political propaganda that caused the Davis campaign to flatten out and become the derelict on political seas that it has.

ASK MA, SHE KNOWS

The American housewife whose family breadwinner was among the 4,500,000 unemployed workers mentioned by Mr. Samuel Gompers in 1920, knows that employment and wages are more secure and better than they were under the democratic free trade traiff policy of that distressful year. She knows full well that these better conditions exist under the present republican policy of protection to American industries.

wife. She handles the purse and does the weekly marketing. She knows what unemployment, part-time work or low wages mean to the household. She knows that when the purse is low or empty, it matters not how cheap goods may be on the market, she must curtail the purchases of meats, groceries and clothing for the family.

Nobody in all our broad land knows so much about the horrors of industrial idleness as does the American housewife.

If every American housewife who remembers the trying days of 1919 and 1920, under the democratic free trade tariff, and the millions of workmen out of employment, will carry that memory with her to the ballot box this year, Coolidge and Dawes will have an overwhelming majority over the combined opposition of democratic free trade candiates and the candidates of the socialist-third party experiment in government.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

THAT more attention should be paid to the dairy industry.

THAT some sections do not produce enough dairy products to supply their own needs.

THAT if they consumed anywhere near the amount they should consume for health and normal well-being, and had to depend on local supply, they would be in a bad way indeed.

THAT there should be a marked increase in the dairy industry.

THAT with a rapidly increasing population which gradually increases its per capita consumption of dairy products, some sections show a steady decline in production.

THAT there is a tendency nation-wide to consume more dairy products. This demand must be met.

THAT better marketing conditions and better understanding of the high value of dairy products as a food should be had.

THAT butter and cheese have a high food value.

THAT fresh milk should be used more freely.

THAT condensed milk is not appreciated or used as it should be, notwithstanding the fact that condensed milk is one of the best foods on the market. It contains all the food elements of whole milk and the only difference lies in the fact that part of the water has been removed.

PROPER ADVERTISING should be used by the producers of Dairy Products, to acquaint the public with their full merits.

Tom Sims Says

No telling how much money is spent to run the government and taxpayers.

It must be awful to feel bad and have nothing special to kick about.

Have you noticed the increase in beauty contests since women vote?

Among the wild movements on foot we have the new fall dances.

A man with a noisy hat usually talks through it.

Nobody seems to care about the price of cotton stockings.

Some say the new dances brand on the feet while others claim they only thicken the head.

If a girl's face is her fortune there's billions in a drug store.

Some husbands are happy, others wives won't stay home alone.

Opportunity doesn't knock around with other knockers.

Wouldn't it be fine if we all made what we claim we do.

An Explanation of Chautauqua

The Swarthmore Chautauqua association was organized in 1912 with 41 towns in 4 states. It now serves nearly 1,000 towns in 16 states and 4 Canadaian provinces. Its charter, issued under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, classifies it as a corporation of the first class (educational institution). Under its charter no pecuniary profit can accrue to any person by reason of his connection with the Association. It is because of the non-profit making character of the Association, and because of its function as an educational institution, that the federal government has exempted the association from collecting the war tax on admission tickets of its issue.

The Swarthmore Chautauqua association was formed for the purpose of improving and extending its work.

Its purpose is to serve the communities of the central and northern Atlantic States and the eastern Provinces of Canada, by promoting and establishing Chautauqua as an institution of information, inspiration and optimism, and thus help America go forward.

Little Hope for Jellico Woman

KNOXVILLE, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Walter Maples, shot five times during a gang fight battle occurred near Jellico Monday night, and in which one man, Tom Leach, was killed and two others shot, was in a critical condition at Knoxville General hospital early today. At tendays physicians held out little hope for her recovery.

Sherman Leach, brother of Tom Leach, brought here with his right and shot away with the exception of the index finger, had partially recovered from the shock caused by the load of shot that tore the member away, but was in no condition to make a detailed statement concerning the tragedy. He was reported resting comfortably last night and his recovery is expected in a short time.

An operation performed upon Mrs. Maples shortly after she was placed in the hospital revealed three abdominal wounds, the intestines having been perforated several times. Another bullet wound was found in the woman's right hip while still another bullet pierced her right breast.

HAIR CHECKS BULLET

HARLAN, Ky., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Alon Christian of Kentucky King Mine neighborhood, is thankful today that she did not have her hair bobbed.

A roll of her heavy suit ofhair probably saved her life Sunday, when she was struck by a stray bullet fired into a taxicab on the road between Loyall and Wallins.

A girl with several men companions had hailed the taxicab and entered it. Apparently the men were angry at the girl leavin gthem. One opened fire. A bullet penetrated the glass in the back of the car and struck Mrs. Christian, a passenger in the head. She was stunned.

Physicians who attended her at Wallins found that she had suffered but a scalp wound. The bullet fell out when she took down her hair for the physician to dress the wound.

Mossie Saylor of Tremont, the girl, was arrested on a charge of drunkenness. A warrant was taken out against Lish Morgan, alleged to have fired the bullet which wounded Mrs. Christian.

WINS FINE POST

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 16—Miss Susan Milward will be Lexington's new assistant postmaster. Miss Milward won the post over Mrs. W. M. King, sister of Maurice L. Miss Milward has been at the local office for eleven years and the daughter of the late Col. H. K. Milward, who was made postmaster by President Grant.

SEKS HIS SISTER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 16.—Bleeding from cuts and bruises he said was caused by an accident at Jackson, Ky., Claude Eldridge, 15 years old, of Hazard, Ky., asked the police today to help him to find his sister, Mrs. Cora Moore, wife of Chester More who, he says, lives somewhere in Louisville.

The lad went to the office of Chief of Police Braden and Miss Patty Gray, stenographer, had his injuries attended to and sent him to the Salvation Army until relatives could be located.

Eldridge told Dr. D. Y. Roberts he was struck by a mail truck pushed along the platform at Jackson as he was about to board the train to come to Louisville.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 16.—L. P. Louey, 67 years old, former City Commissioner, died at his home here Sunday after a long illness. BADLY CUT UP

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 16.—Homer Storer, 27 years old, was cut probably fatally in a fight at Manchester Sunday night. There are three gashes in his chest which almost cut his heart out, three gashes on his left shoulder and several on his face requiring thirty-eight stitches to close the wounds. Thomas Stevens, who is alleged to have cut Stoner, escaped.

CORBIN MAN SHOT

CORBIN, Ky., Oct. 16.—George Clark, 21 years old, died at the Siler & Smith hospital here Monday afternoon of a bullet wound alleged to have been inflicted by a posse headed by Prohibition Agent Roy Easley when they fired a fusilade of shots from a school house on the Corn Creek Road Saturday night into the automobile which he was driving.

William Adams, 25, who was with Clark and was seriously wounded, is doing well at the local hospital where a foot was amputated and it is believed that he will recover. John Bunch, 23, third member of the automobile party, all of whom were from Corbin, escaped unhurt.

It was understood that the shooting charges against the prohibition officers would be changed to murder. Easley and Deputy Sheriffs Frank Napier, George Davis, Will Mahan and Henry Morgan had waived preliminary hearing at Williamsburg on the shooting charges Monday and were held under bond of $2,500. Easley works out of the office of State Director Sam Collins.

It was reported that warrants also would be issued against other deputies—Ledford Cadell, Green Bundy and James Click.

MURDER CASE UP FOR TRIAL

Paul Atchley and Sam Ferguson charged with killing J. F. Brooks Blockhouse merchant, last March will be tried for the second time the first trial having resulted in a divided jury. Two women were in Brooks' store when a masked man entered about 9 o'clock at night and demanded money. Brooks reached for his pistol and was slain, his own shot going wide. The slayer escaped in an automobile.

The case of Ben Steele, charged with killing Ed Coulter on the night of July 7, is on the docket also. Steele and his wife returning from a fishing trip found Coulter in their home. A quarrel ensued. Coulter using a stick of wood as a weapon.

AUTO CLUB HAS DRIVE

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 16.—Drive of the Knoxville Auto club for a thousand new members will be assisted Thursday, Friday and Saturday by members of the Central Council Parent-Teachers association, who will establish booths in the lobbies of the postoffice of the Holston National banks and of the Union National bank.

Council of the Parent-Teacher association have joined in the campaign of the Automobile club, according to Mrs. John R. Bender president, on the grounds that the fight of the Automobile club means better schools, churches and recreational facilities for all the people of the state.

Membership drive of the Automobile club has been meeting with expectations of its success, according to Russell Hanlon, secretary of the club. "Hundreds of new members have been promised us and I have no doubt when the final check is made at midnight Saturday and all reports are in that the club will have gained its objective," Mr. Hanlon stated.

"Notwithstanding the fine work the club has done last year in aiding tourists, putting out road signs in safety first promotion and in having Governor Peay to direct the state highway commission to build two new roads into North Carolina we expect with a doubled membership to do even better work for Knoxville next year," the secretary explained.

FINE HIGHWAY

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 16.—Between Knoxville and Bristol now is a good link of the Lee highway. In Knox county is a macadamized highway, but in Hawkins county there is an asphalt highway.

The monument is a duplicate of the zero stone, in Washington, built of pink marble from a Knoxville quarry. The face of the stone bears a bronze plate picture of the old East Tennessee stage coach of 1825 to 1856 which operated over this line from Knoxville to Bristol. One side marks the memory of John Carter, who settled in Carter Valley. Another side commemorates Benjamin Hawkins, United States Senator of North Carolina, for whom the county was named. President Coolidge will press a button to unveil the monument by wire.

Why Are Drugs Standardized?

They are standardized in order to bring about uniform therapeutic efficiency to the patient whenever required. This efficiency is most needed in the sick room—not merely in the laboratory.

What is true of drugs must be true of foods. Purity and efficiency in the can is only part of the problem—purity and efficiency in the kitchen is the true test.

The law requires that baking power contain 12% leavening gas at the time of sale to the consumer. This measure insures uniform leavening efficiency and protects the health of the public.

In order to comply with this fixed standard for baking powder, manufacturers must produce and pack their product so as to avoid the deterioration which may result from absorption of atmospheric moisture.

Baking Powder manufacturers to avoid violation of the law, also spend thousands of dollars yearly in testing grocers' stocks and removing "spent" goods from his shelves, in spite of the fact that every possible precaution had previously been taken against deterioration.

With the exception of Texas, the pure food laws are not applied to baking powder mixed with flour at the mill and sold in bags as "Self Rising Flour." There is no penalty on the manufacturers if this fails to "self rise"—the consumer is the "goat"—he is the one that pays the penalty through indigestion and ill health that comes from eating bakings that are not properly raised. The standardization of baking powder is a protection to both the consumer and the manufacturer—who welcomes such laws and co-operates in every way possible. But!

Not so with the self rising flour manufacturer—he resents such laws and fights such legislation. Why? Because a standardization of self rising flour would require moisture-proof containers instead of cheap sacks—because low grade "clears" could no longer be sold as "fancy patent flour." It would also mean he must maintain expert chemical control such as is now maintained by baking powder manufacturers.

Calumet Baking Powder contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the U.S. Food Authorities.

TO MAKE RICH RED BLOOD

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron Nuxated Iron which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extracts of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Millions of people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.
